

TABLE 2Examples of Questions Used to Determine Knowledge and Attitudes About CAM and Conventional Medicine*Patients

- In the past year, how many times did you seek health-associated services?
- What kinds of health care providers did you see?
- What were your reasons for seeking alternative treatments?
- Were you satisfied with the treatments you have received? Why? Why not?
- How would you define alternative health care?
- What do you think are the main differences between conventional and alternative treatment?
- Please list the alternative or complementary healing methods that you are aware of.

Practitioners

- What types of methods do you use?
- How do these differ from the methods of conventional health care?
- In your opinion, what are the public perceptions about alternative healing?
- When do you refer patients to other health care practitioners?
- Describe the relationship between alternative and conventional health care.
- What do you personally think about conventional medical care?
- What kinds of changes would you like to see in the health care system?

CAM denotes complementary and alternative medicine.